3. High Court's Circular in Roc.No.1012-A/2010/F1, dated 09.04.2010(P.Dis.No.48/2010)

I am to state that the Hon'ble High Court in its circular under reference 1st cited, has issued directions to all the Subordinate Courts that whenever any direction is given by the High Court to the Subordinate Courts concerned,

1. they should dispose of the proceedings pending on their file within the time specified in the order of the High Court and report the fact to the High Court immediately after disposing of the proceedings concerned;

and

2. should make a request to the High Court for extension of time for carrying out the directions well in advance of the date specified in the order of the High Court, stating the reasons therefor and the further time required, if for any reason the Subordinate Court concerned is not able to comply with the order of the High Court within the time specified.

Subsequently, the High Court issued circulars, cited 2nd and 3rd in the reference, reiterating the earlier instructions.

It is now brought to the notice of the High Court that such directions are not being strictly followed.

It is hereby informed that the aforesaid directions are to be complied with due diligence and any deviation thereof, will be viewed seriously.

Copies of the aforesaid Circular 1 to 3 cited above are enclosed herewith for strict compliance.

Yours faithfully

CIRCULAR

P.Dis.No.101/85

Sub: Orders – Judicial Orders of the High Court giving certain directions – strict adherence of – Instructions – issued.

Several instances have come to the notice of the High Court that whenever certain specific directions are given by the High Court to the Subordinate Courts, particularly directions:-

- (1) to dispose of any proceeding pending on their file, within a specified time limit, or
- (2) to record a finding on any issue or fact referred to therein by the High Court under Order XLI, Rule 25 of the Code of Civil Procedure, within a specified time-limit, the Subordinate Courts concerned, neither dispose of such proceeding within the time-limit specified, record the finding or the fact and submit the report to the High Court within the time-limit specified by the High Court nor seek from the High Court any extension of time well in advance for complying with the directions given by the High Court.

The High Court views seriously such lapses and delays of the Subordinate Courts in carrying out the directions given by the High Court.

"All the Subordinate Courts are hereby informed that whenever any direction, as stated supra, is given by the High Court, the Subordinate Courts concerned -

- (1) Should dispose of the proceeding pending on their file within the time specified in the order of the High Court and report the fact to the High Court immediately after disposing of the proceeding concerned; and

- (2) should make a request to the High Court for extension of time for carrying out the directions well in advance of the date specified in the order of the High Court; stating the reasons therefore, and the further time required, if for any reason the Subordinate Court concerned is not able to comply with the order of the High Court within the time specified.

All the Subordinate Courts are further informed the any lapse or delay in this regard will be viewed seriously.
