Sir,

Sub: Fundamental Rules – Tamil Nadu Leave Rules – Regulation of period of absence / Leave –Instructions - Issued.

Ref: Government Letter No.53963 / FR-III / 2000-9, Personnel and Administrative Reforms (FR-III) Department, dated 08.05.2003.

I am directed to state that the following instructions were issued in the letter cited.

- (i) prompt disciplinary action should be initiated against the Government servants who do not resume duty after long absence or on leave exceeding the permissible limit under Rule 18(1) and (2) of Fundamental Rules or Rule 23(a) (ii) of the Tamil Nadu Leave Rules 1933, as the case may be, by the disciplinary authorities, following the procedure laid down in the Tamil Nadu Civil Services (Disciplinary and Appeal) Rules and to finalise the disciplinary proceedings, with utmost speed;
- (ii) In cases where the Government servants express willingness to rejoin duty, pending finalization of the disciplinary proceedings, they may be permitted to rejoin duty;
- (iii) the disciplinary authority should initiate disciplinary action against the Government servants, who have violated FR 18(1) or (2) under rule 17 of the Tamil Nadu Civil Services (Discipline and Appeal) Rules and consider that good and sufficient reason exist for imposing any one of the penalties under rule 3 of the Tamil Nadu Civil Services (Discipline and Appeal) Rules;

absence from duty / eligible leave, without sanction by the competent authorities, from the year 1986 are referred to Government for regulation, during the year 2015, i.e. after 28 years; when the concerned individual, had already retired from service in the year 2014. In another instance, the period of absence from the year 1986 are referred to the Government, for regulation, in the year 2015, after the individual had already retired from service, in the year 2000.

3. In such cases, due to the negligence of the competent authority, who should have taken appropriate action as per existing rules / orders / instructions then and there, for his stay away from duty or overstay beyond the period of leave sanctioned, ended up with regulating the period of absence with pay or leave salary, based on court order, obtained by the individuals. The Rules / orders / instructions, which are issued from time to time are to be applied in the relevant cases, at the time of regulation of the absence / leave periods itself. Belated proposals sent for regulations may lead to undue further delays, due to the non-availability of relevant records, such as leave letters, Medical certificates, Medical Fitness etc., that are required, as per rules in existence, as on those days.

4. In order to curtail such instances, all the Departments, including Administrative Departments in Secretariat are directed to ensure the following instructions, without any deviation in the cases of regulating the period of absence / leave:

- (1) The Government servants shall be made aware of their leave eligibility at the time of application of leave, as per the Tamil Nadu Leave Rules / Fundamental Rules, in force. Over-stayal of leave periods shall be avoided/ regulated immediately as per rules / orders / instructions, in force;
- (2) The eligible / admissible leave of the Government servants shall be sanctioned by the competent authority, in time, without delay. Any lapses in this regard shall be viewed seriously;
- (3) In case of non-availability of leave at the credit of Government servant, he/she shall be sanctioned 'Extraordinary Leave without pay and allowances', as per eligibility, under Rule-16 of the Tamil Nadu Leave Rules, by the competent authority, without any delay;
- (4) The concerned administrative department in the Secretariat shall be addressed for clarification in sanction of leave to Government servants, if any, without delay.
- (5) In respect of unauthorised absence, the instructions issued in the G.O. cited should be followed strictly.
- (6) The competent authority shall ensure that all the leaves availed by the Government servant, are regulated well in advance before the date of retirement, so as to avoid referring such cases to Government, after the lapse of several months / years and to avoid delay in sending pension proposals, by the Government servants.

5. The above instructions should be followed scrupulously. Any further instances of inordinate delay in regulation of leave / unauthorised absence will be viewed seriously, by the Government.

Yours faithfully,
